BILL NUMBER: S7836A

SPONSOR: SERINO

TITLE OF BILL:

An act to amend the public authorities law, in relation to the ceremonial designation of the Franklin Delano Roosevelt Mid-Hudson bridge as the "Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt Mid-Hudson Bridge"

PURPOSE:

To honor both Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt by designating the Franklin Delano Roosevelt Mid-Hudson Bridge as the "Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt Mid-Hudson Bridge".

SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS:

Section 1: Provides that the Franklin Delano Roosevelt Mid-Hudson Bridge shall be designated as the "Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt Mid-Hudson Bridge". Provides that the chairperson of the NYS Bridge Authority shall be responsible for the installation and maintenance of adequate signing within such time and manner as they shall deem appropriate. Furthermore provides that this designation shall be of a ceremonial nature so as to avoid confusion and to limit any possible disruption of commerce.

Section 2: Provides the effective date.

JUSTIFICATION:

Few couples have left such an enduring mark on American History as Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt, whose partnership played a role not only in cultivating a community in New York's Hudson Valley, but in shaping the future of our great nation. In her role as first lady, Eleanor was a beloved pioneer in her own right and has long been the paragon of the position since her tenure. A trailblazer for women in politics, she set the standard, being the first to regularly hold press conferences, write a daily newspaper column, speak at a national party convention and more.

The Roosevelts were fierce allies, their status as political partners was also highlighted by Eleanor being the first lady to be included as part of a presidential memorial. Despite being both personal and political partners, however, according to archivists at the Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library, nothing in the United States is named after both Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt together. Prior to his election as President of the United States, FDR, a Hyde Park native, served as Governor of New York State. As Governor, FDR led the famous parade opening the Mid-Hudson Bridge, later renamed as the Franklin Delano Roosevelt Mid-Hudson Bridge, alongside his beloved wife Eleanor. This legislation would honor the contributions of two of the most influential 20th century Americans, and highlight the role that they played in our community and in our country together.
