“SEND PUTIN A MESSAGE” POSTCARDS WILL DELUGE RUSSIAN CONSULATE IN NYC WITH PRO-UKRAINE POSTCARDS

“In order to show support for Ukraine, which is valiantly and vigorously defending itself against Russia’s dastardly attack, Americans should send postcards to Sergei Ovsianikov (who is the Consul General of Russia in NYC), which say:

SEND PUTIN A MESSAGE:
RUSSIA MUST AGREE TO AN IMMEDIATE CEASEFIRE, AND NEGOTIATE TO WITHDRAW FROM UKRAINE!™”

M.H. FRYBURG, who is the co-author, with Stefan Lonce, of the forthcoming book, 4 A NEW USA – THE ROOSEVELT/REAGAN WAY! – A CALENDRIAL MEMOIR, said in a written statement released on March 4, 2022.

The address for the Russian Consulate is: 9 East 91st Street, NY, NY 10128. The U.S. Postal Service charges 40 cents postage to mail a postcard that measures 6 inches by 4 inches; larger postcards cost 58 cents postage.

According to Mr. Fryburg, “As FDR would have said, ‘February 24, 2022 is a date which will live in infamy, when Ukraine was suddenly and deliberately attacked by naval, air and land forces of Russia.’ Americans must STAND UP FOR A FREE UKRAINE, which (to paraphrase FDR) will overcome Russia’s premeditated invasion, and the Ukrainian people, with help from free people everywhere, will, in their righteous might, win through to absolute victory.” For more information, please visit www.SendPutinAMessage.com.

Postcard-writers should use their real names and addresses on the postcards (it is illegal to send false information in the U.S. mail). Americans who mail handwritten “SEND PUTIN A MESSAGE” postcards should take photos of the message on their postcards (including their real names). Writing, by hand, the message quoted above on the “SEND PUTIN A MESSAGE” postcards provides persuasive proof of the passion of the postcard-writers.

If millions-and-millions of Americans mail handwritten “SEND PUTIN A MESSAGE” postcards to the Russian Consulate in Manhattan (which is a free standing building), then the pictures of the USPS delivering truckload-after-truckload-after-truckload of postcards will send a clear and convincing message to Moscow: Russia must agree to an immediate ceasefire, and negotiate to withdraw from Ukraine! Our objective is to start the “SEND PUTIN A MESSAGE” postcards campaign in the United States, and then expand, around the world, the peaceful protest of postcard writers who STAND UP FOR AMERICAN VALUES and who STAND UP FOR A FREE UKRAINE!
